The article discusses the res	sults of some cla	ssroom research. The findings sugg	est that where y	ou sit in the classroom shows 1	of	person and learner you are. For exa	ample, if you oft	en choose a seat at the back, you're p	robably a ² who doesn't enjoy talking. I	However, you sh	ouldn't really sit there if you wear 3		or have problems with hearing. According to the article, students who choose to sit on one side of the classroom really know how to 4	and usual	ly do well at school. It's very possible you sit at the front of the classroom if you like taking an active 5 lessons. The article doesn't	tell readers whe	ere to find the 6	in the classroo	m, it only discusses typical characteris	stics of students	who choose to sit in different places.
